August 6, 1995

Dear Mrs. Anfinsen,

It is with great sadness that I read of the passing of your dear husband, Christian Anfinsen z"l.

His passing means the loss of a great mind to humanity, and a great soul to the Jewish people. He will be sorely missed as a man of action and as a supporter and friend of Israel.

I will cherish the letter written by your late husband to the Nobel Committee, on my behalf. It is a memento of the tentative beginnings of the new era which he so strongly supported.

I am certain that the memorial ceremony to be held at John Hopkins University will honor his memory in the manner deserving of a man of his vision and commitment.

Israel shares your loss.

Sincerely yours,

Yitzhak Rabin
