Dear Doctor Lederberg:

It was a great pleasure to have met you and Doctor Marguerite in the sukkah, although sustained conversation there is never possible.

Following up on my promise I am writing to remind you both that you thought you might find time to visit our Rare Book and Manuscript Room, the greatest collection of Biblical and Judaic material ever assembled. I would be delighted to arrange a special tour for you, both to see you again and because I never go into the room without being thrilled.

Should you prefer to come around noon, I would gladly arrange for an informal luncheon, even if the Chancellor were unable to join us. That would give us opportunity to talk about the Seminary's Intergroup Activities mentioned Sunday.

In any case I do hope you will be able to return to 3080 Broadway reasonably soon.

Sincerely yours,

Jessica Feingold
