Dear Josh;

I got quite a kick out of receiving your publication. I got quite a jolt when I tried to read and follow the contents.

I'm still valiantly attempting to visualize the scientific implications of your paper.

In the meantime would it be possible for me to get a vial or two of the Penicillium notatum? The boys in Bio Shop grew very successful cultures last term. They ~~were~~ neglected over the summer and so the species became contaminated.

Thanks.

Sincerely,

Abraham Penzer

P.S. your brother did "all right" too.
