Queridos amigos!

Your fascinating tales of coral reef life enthralled us that we felt we couldn't wait until reaching Queensland, and took a 'plane to these kindlier tropics. But they are lovely, nonetheless, not only underwater but also on land, among palms and bougainvilleas and mangroves, where the anis and the frigate birds play. M. is a very pleasant town at the non-touristy W-end of P.R., with enough to keep us entertained and enlightened for at least a fortnight. They even have a local M.B.L. nearby!

& that you are enjoying the rest of Southern winter. All the best.

Ruth & Sara.
