Dear Joshua,

Many thanks for sending me the copy of your letter to Milan Hašek - I hope he acts on your suggestion. I myself do not quite see the point of a conference on tolerance, and I am really only going myself in order to humour Milan. I will mention Nossal's name to Wolstenholme of Ciba, but the trouble is that he is very tough-minded about restricting the numbers to 30, and a whole lot of people are already clamouring to get in. However, I would much rather have Nossal than anyone else; but if you hear nothing, I am afraid it means that the Symposium is completely full up.

Yours ever,

Peter
