Shanghai, March 9, 1946.

Dear Margaret,

Your letter of February 16 has reached me here in Shanghai, and it was fine to hear from you and learn what is going on at home.

On March 1, our APO rights were taken away and all mail in both directions will have to go through regular post office channels. So this letter will go via the Chinese post, and your next one should come the same way. Daddy's address is now D. M. Sawyer, c/o UNRRA, Embankment Building, 370 North Soochow Road, Shanghai, China. Any letters should be sent by air and should be very light as the cost goes by weight & the minimum is less than by A.P.O. Incoming APO letters will be handled till the end of March.

I finally left Honolulu on Feb 19 and reached Guam that night after two stops en oral islands. At mid-day of the following day we were off again for Manila. As we approached the city we ~~ran~~ rode into an "air pocket" or down draft. We had our belts on however and were not thrown about. The baggage rose a foot or two into the air and everything loose in the tail of the plane was scattered about. We were given beds in the ATC billet ~~for the night~~

Manila is a wreck. We were delayed in that city from Feb. 22 to Feb 25, we had little time for business as those days included a holiday, a Saturday and a Sunday. We reached Shanghai at 2 p.m. on the 25th, after a fine, clear view of the rice-fields of the Yangtze Valley. It has been raining ever since, however. We landed with great suddenness. Our brakes "froze" and we promptly blew out four of the great tires of the landing gear and came to a sudden screeching ~~stop~~ at it, and were met by the "crash" cars. We were all shaken down, however, and no harm was done.

Here in Shanghai I am in a comfortable hotel, the Park, and am sharing the room ~~the~~ with Mr. Mooney. He was ready to leave Washington when I was, and tried to save time by going via London and Calcutta. He left Washington on Jan 21, I got off on Feb 6. We arrived on the same plane on Feb. 25. I think I won the race!, considering his head start.

I have been very busy here with the many errands I had, accumulated + with numerous visits and interviews. I have already been guest of honor at two dinners and there are more to come. In about three days I shall be ready to go into the field to take a look. It will probably be a few days ~~in~~ April ~~by~~ before I start for Korea, if I go there, or for home.

Dr. Borcic has taken and we I enjoy getting about with him. He knows the Chinese and has their confidence.

I wish you were here to have a Chinese feast with me, - with pork in sour-sweet sauce, sharks fins, etc. etc. The ordering is done by the numbers of the items on the bill of fare, - There are about 400 of them at the Sun ya restaurant where I ate this evening.

The city is a noisy, swarming
place with its thousands of rickshaws, pedicabs, trucks, and pedestrians, and ordinary cars. It is no easy matter to get about.

Much love to you all
from Wilbur.
