Cecil Chambers,
86 Strand, London, W.C.

Col. H. A. Bruce to W.O.
December 29th 1916.

(typewritten)

Dear Sir William,

Replying to your letter of December 21st, I do not see how I can reasonably ask other people, to whom you may have written letters, or who may have written letters to you, to send me such letters, to enable me to publish them.

You speak about Miss Campbell. I am sorry you do not yet appreciate the situation in regard to her, which was clearly set forth in my former letter. If you think she should receive an apology, I would suggest that you make your request to General Jones, as he is responsible for her removal from Taplow to a similar position at Buxton.

I hope you have quite recovered from your recent illness.

Yours faithfully,
H. A. Bruce.
