PRINCIPLES of MEDICAL ETHICS of the AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION

This statement of ethical principles expresses in a general way the duty of the physician to his patients, to other members of the profession and to the profession at large, as well as of the profession to the public. The good of the public is the primary object of these principles, and in so far as they receive the endorsement of the deliberate judgment of the community they are proved to be true.

PUBLICATIONS of the PROPAGANDA DEPARTMENT

NOSTRUMS and QUACKERY

Second Edition (1913)

For some years THE JOURNAL of the American Medical Association has published articles, in its Propaganda for Reform department, dealing with quackery and the "patent-medicine" evil. Most of the exposés have been the result of the work done by the Propaganda for Reform department supplemented by help from the Association's laboratory. Full reports have also been published of the splendid work done by the federal government, both through the agency of the postoffice fraud order and by the enforcement of the Food and Drugs Act Similar data furnished by the state authorities have been drawn on and work done in Europe along the same lines has been used. All this matter was brought together, elaborated, freely illustrated and supplemented with additional information on the same subjects to make the book "Nostrums and Quackery."

It was published in the belief not only that the information ought to go to the public, but also that the public desired just such information. The best evidence that this belief was justified was the necessity of issuing a second edition in less than a year. The second (1913) edition is larger by about 200 pages and has more than 100 additional illustrations. Much entirely new matter was added, and a large portion of the material that appeared in the first edition was brought down to date. The distinguishing features of "Nostrums and Quackery" are the thoroughness with which the work has been done and the accuracy of the information it gives. It has an exhaustive index.

THE GREAT AMERICAN FRAUD

By Samuel Hopkins Adams

This is a reprint of a series of articles by Mr. Adams that appeared originally in Collier's. The first one came out in October, 1905; others followed at more or less frequent intervals during 1906 and 1907, and in 1912 the subject was again taken up. Most of Mr. Adams' articles have been reprinted in this book. They contain detailed exposures of the methods of "patent medicine" men and quacks and the harm that these do to the public. The object of the series was to make the situation so familiar and thoroughly understood that at least the worst aspects of the evil would be mitigated.

This book is bound in stiff paper: 185 pages; freely illustrated and has an extensive index. Price, 35 cents, postpaid.

THE PROPAGANDA for REFORM in PROPRIETARY MEDICINES

Ninth Edition (1916)

As New and Nonofficial Remedies covers the field of worthy proprietaries, so the Propaganda for Reform covers the field of the unworthy. Interestingly written, it contains an enormous amount of information that every physician needs. With New and Nonofficial Remedies and the Propaganda for Reform in his hands, the practitioner can tell what to choose among proprietary remedies—and why; what to avoid—and why. An exhaustive index makes the Propaganda for Reform a valuable reference book on unscientific or inefficient proprietaries.

Brown cloth, stamped in gold. 512 pages. Price, $1.00, postpaid.

PAMPHLETS on the NOSTRUM EVIL and QUACKERY

(Prices include postage. The list is subject to revision as new pamphlets are issued from time to time.)

"Cancer Cure" Frauds

The United States government a few years ago investigated a number of concerns exploiting so-called cures for cancer. This illustrated pamphlet contains exposés of eight concerns—Rupert Wells, G. M. Curry, Drs. Mixer, Toxo-Absorbent Company, Dr. Chamlee, B. F. Bye, W. O. Bye, L. T. Leach. Illustrated. Price, 15 cents.

For method of remittance, see page 4

"Consumption Cures"

Many of the preparations discussed in this pamphlet were originally dealt with in THE JOURNAL of the American Medical Association. The matter has been elaborated and reprinted. —Aicsol (Lloyd), Nature's Creation, J. Lawrence Hill, Duket's Cure, Tuberciecide, Lung Germine, "Tuberculozyne," Oxidaze—Hydrocine, Eckman's Alterative, Virgin Oil of Pine, are discussed. Illustrated. Price, 30 cents.

Cosmetic Nostrums

This pamphlet is divided into three parts. The first part deals with preparations for the skin; the second part with preparations for the hair, while part three gives data on some "hair removers," deodorants, etc. Illustrated. Price, 15 cents.

"Deafness Cures"

There are many dangerous and worthless "cures" for deafness on the market. Some are sold as "side lines" for other medical fakes; some are "courses of treatment" sold on the mail-order plan; still others are trivial devices sold at an exorbitant price. Nine concerns are dealt with in this pamphlet—Dr. George Coutant, Dr. Branaman, Dr. L. C. Grains, Dr. Edward E. Gardner, The Wilson Ear-Drum, The Morley Ear-Phone, The Way Ear-Drum, Actina. Illustrated. Price, 15 cents.

"Epilepsy Cures"

Practically all of the "cures" for epilepsy or "fits" are preparations of bromids. These, taken without knowledge of their composition, result in a brutalization of the patient and permanent injury. Some of the products described in this pamphlet are: Towns' Epilepsy Treatment, Dr. Peebles Epilepsy Remedy, Waterman's Tonic Restorative, Converse Treatment, Dr. May's Formula, Dr. Kline's Nerve Remedy, Dr. Croney's Specific, Dr. Guertin's Nerve Syrup. Illustrated. Price, 15 cents.

"Female-Weakness Cures"

This pamphlet deals not only with several mail-order concerns that "specialize" in the long-distance diagnosis and treatment of "women's diseases," but it also gives information about a number of widely advertised nostrums sold for "female weakness." Some of the subjects are: Viavi, The Dr. Day Co., Mrs. M. Summers, Atlanta Remedy Co., Chichester Pills, Cora B. Miller, Harriet M. Richards, Pinkham's Compound, Wine of Cardui, Vimedia. Illustrated. Price, 15 cents.

Mechanical Cure-Alls

Such devices as "electric belts," the "electro-chemical ring," the "J. B. L. Cascade" and the various "gas-pipe cures," are discussed in this pamphlet. Illustrated. Price, 15 cents.

Medical Institutes

Many quacks conduct their trade under the name of Medical Institutes. This illustrated pamphlet deals with the following concerns: United Doctors, Advanced Medical Science Institute, Known Doctors, Dr. Cook and Company, Pacific Coast Institutes, Electro-Oxygen Institute, Bellevue Medical Institute, Carson's Temple of Health, Wisconsin Medical Institute. Illustrated. Price, 30 cents.

Medical Mail-Order Frauds

Several fraudulent medical or pseudomedical mail-order concerns have been put out of business by the United States Government through the issuance of fraud orders based on investigations made by the Postoffice Department. This pamphlet describes the method of some of these fraudulent concerns, and gives the results of the federal investigations.—G. H. Brinkler, Willard Pyorrhea Treatment, Dr. Jiroch Co., Okola Laboratory, J. Russell Price Co., Sargol. Illustrated. Price 25 cents.

"Men's Specialists"

This is a reprint of a series of enlightening articles that appeared in the Chicago Tribune. It deals with quacks who operate in and from Chicago. Written by newspaper men who personally investigated the methods of the quacks, they present a vivid picture of the evils with which they deal. Illustrated. Price, 30 cents.

Mineral Waters

Many mineral waters have been sold under claims that were as false, misleading and deceptive as those made for "patent medicines." A number of such products are dealt with in this pamphlet. Illustrated, 10 cents.

Miscellaneous Nostrums

Gives information, brief in some instances, extensive in others, about products that are worthless or dangerous, sold under claims that are misleading or false. More than two hundred preparations are dealt with. Illustrated. Price, 30 cents.

Miscellaneous Specialists

Some self-styled specialists, itinerant and otherwise, form the subject-matter of this pamphlet. They are: F. W. Buck, W. J. Crozier, Gerald Macaura, Gilbert Dennis Loffler, W. H. (G. E.) Hale, Orrin Robertson. Illustrated. Price, 10 cents.

Nostrums for Kidney Disease and Diabetes

While diabetes is not a disease of the kidneys, the nostrums sold for the alleged cure of this condition are grouped with the nostrums for Bright's disease because the average quack recommends his nostrums indiscriminately for kidney disease and diabetes. Illustrated. Price, 15 cents.

The Nostrum and the Public Health

This does not deal with any specific nostrums but discusses the general relation of the "patent medicine" evil to the public health. It details some of the causes and suggests a remedy. Price, 10 cents.

"Obesity Cures"

During the last few years a number of obesity "cures" have been exploited. Some of these are dangerous, others merely worthless; still others have been declared fraudulent by the courts. Some are more or less elaborate systems sold on the mail-order plan; others are drugs, purchasable at the drug stores. Several "cures" are described. Illustrated. Price, 15 cents.

Quasi-Medical Institutions

Diploma mills, fake hospitals that furnished "certificates of membership" for quacks to frame and hang on their walls, mail-order schools of "drugless healing," are some of the institutions dealt with in this pamphlet. Illustrated. Price, 15 cents.

Sanatogen

While there is nothing remarkable about casein (which is best known in the form of cottage cheese) and while the uses and limitations of the glycerophosphates have long been known, when these substances are sold as Sanatogen, they become, if one is to believe the advertising, a veritable elixir of life. Illustrated. Price, 15 cents.

Testimonials

This profusely illustrated pamphlet is a reprint of Mr. Samuel Hopkins Adams' article, "A Fake's Protest Is a Testimonial." The illustrations have been added to "point a moral and adorn a tale. Price, 10 cents.

"At the Bar of Public Opinion"

This is a collection of quoted opinions from newspapers and magazines on the subjects of the nostrum evil and quackery. The criticisms, coming as they do from sources which might be financially benefited if they kept silent, are of particular interest. Price, 10 cents.

LANTERN SLIDE EXHIBIT

ILLUSTRATING CERTAIN PHASES OF THE NOSTRUM EVIL AND QUACKERY

The Propaganda for Reform Department of THE JOURNAL of the American Medical Association has prepared a number of lantern slides illustrating some phases of the nostrum evil and quackery. These have been arranged in the form of what may be called an "automatic lecture" which can be used in any automatic projection apparatus (stereopticon). The "lecture" consists of Illustrative Slides and Legend Slides, the latter being interpolated between the former so as to tell the "story." These slides can, of course, be used by a lecturer, in which case the speaker is able to elaborate on the material presented. The slides (which are standard American size, 3¼ by 4 inches and uncolored) may be purchased outright at 40 cents each (postage extra) or may be rented by physicians or by organizations interested in the public health.

Rules and Rates for Slide Rental.—When the entire set of sixty-two (62) slides is rented, the charge is $1.00 a day. For less than the complete set the charge is 2 cents for each slide per day or fraction thereof. Rental commences the day the slides are shipped and terminates when the slides are received by us in return. No rental is charged for Sundays and legal holidays. One day's rental is allowed without charge when slides are to go to the 4th or 5th postal zones; and two days' rental, when they go to the 6th, 7th or 8th zones. Transportation charges must be paid both ways by the renter who also must be responsible for all breakage or loss while the slides are out of our possession. Address all orders for rental: Propaganda Department, American Medical Association, 535 North Dearborn St., Chicago, Illinois. Send for descriptive list.
