WAR DEPARTMENT,

Surgeon General's Office,

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 18, 1868.

CIRCULAR ORDERS,
No. 6.

The following order from the Quartermaster General's Office is published for the information of Medical Officers:

GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 27.

QUARTERMASTER GENERAL'S OFFICE,

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 25, 1867.

Officers of the Quartermaster's Department, in charge of Government Trains returning from frontier or other remote points, are authorized, upon the requisition of Medical Officers, to furnish transportation by such Trains for collections of specimens for the Army Medical Museum, when such transportation can be furnished without injury to the public service.

D. H. RUCKER,
Acting Quartermaster General,
Brevet Major General, U. S. A.

Medical Officers in turning over packages to the Quartermaster's Department for transportation will take receipts in duplicate, and will forward one of the receipts to the Surgeon General. All packages for the Museum should be plainly marked "Surgeon General, U. S. A., Washington, D. C.," with "Army Medical Museum" inscribed in the lower left hand corner.

BY ORDER OF THE SURGEON GENERAL:

C. H. Crane

Assistant Surgeon General, U. S. Army.
