No. 117.

I. The following modification is made in paragraph I. General Orders No. 109, Head Q'r's Dep't No. 2, Chattanooga, August 8, 1862:

One wagon for the extra ammunition for every 300 instead of 400 men.

II. In addition to the allowance indicated in paragraph I. General Orders specified above, there shall be provided for the MEDICAL DEPARTMENT 1 two-horse wagon for each wing, Division and Brigade of the forces in the field.

III. No officer or soldier will be permitted to take a trunk into the field—soldiers shall be restricted to a knapsack and officers to a carpet-sack or small valise.

IV. Whenever prisoners are captured by our troops, the ranking officer of the capturing detachment will immediately forward to these headquarters a descriptive list of the prisoners, giving their names, rank, ages, regiments and companies.

V. Whenever prisoners are paroled, the paroles will be forwarded to these headquarters, and a duplicate copy (compared and certified) retained by the officer who may grant the parole. In taking paroles officers will be careful to have them signed if practicable, but if not signed by the prisoners paroled, a certified list stating their names, rank, ages, regiments and companies should be attested by an abolition officer, if one be present. In the absence of an abolition officer the list must be certified by the Confederate officer who grants the parole. These lists must be made in duplicate if practicable. One copy to be retained by the officer taking the parole and the other to be forwarded to these headquarters without delay.

By command of Gen'l Bragg.
