PROCEEDINGS OF A MEETING OF THE FULTON COUNTY MEDICAL SOCIETY.

Embracing the Report of Dr. T. S. Powell, as a Delegate to the late Annual Meeting of the American Medical Association; together with the Report of the Committee to whom was referred the action of the Georgia Medical Association.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA:
OFFICE OF FULTON COUNTY MEDICAL SOCIETY.
April 12th, 1879.

A paper was presented on the subject of a proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society, which was read by Dr. A. H. Powell. The amendment proposed was as follows:

Resolved, That the following be and is hereby proposed as an amendment to the constitution of this Society:

1. That the number of members of the Society shall be limited to thirty.
2. That no member shall be admitted to the Society until he has been recommended by a member of the Society.
3. That no member shall be expelled from the Society except on the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members present.
4. That the officers of the Society shall be elected by ballot, and that no officer shall be re-elected until the expiration of the term for which he was last elected.

The amendment was read, and after a discussion it was ordered that the same be submitted to the next meeting of the Society for a vote.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the Georgia Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the Georgia Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.

The President then moved that the action of the Fulton County Medical Society be referred to the committee on medical ethics, to report at the next meeting of the Society.

The President then called the attention of the Society to the action of the American Medical Association, and to the fact that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the Fulton County Medical Society was in harmony with the action of the American Medical Association.
Proceedings of a Meeting

PULTON COUNTY MEDICAL SOCIETY

[Text continues with various paragraphs and sections discussing medical and scientific topics.]

- Signed: 'J. T. Smith'
- Dated: July 22, 1970.