

3698. Adulteration of shell eggs. U. S. v. 7 Cases, More or Less, of Shell Eggs. Default decree of condemnation, forfeiture, and destruction. (F. & D. No. 5873. I S. No. 28952-h. S. No. C-75.)

On August 20, 1914, the United States attorney for the Northern District of Illinois, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel for the seizure and condemnation of 7 cases, each containing 30 dozen shell eggs, remaining unsold in the original unbroken packages at Chicago, Ill., alleging that the product had been shipped on August 11, 1914, and transported from the State of South Dakota into the State of Illinois, and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act.

Adulteration was alleged in the libel for the reason that the product aforesaid, when it was shipped as aforesaid, consisted wholly of a filthy animal substance; for the further reason that it consisted in part of a filthy animal substance; for the further reason that it consisted wholly of a decomposed animal substance; for the further reason that it consisted in part of a decomposed animal substance; for the further reason that it consisted wholly of a putrid animal substance; and for the further reason that it consisted in part of a putrid animal substance.

On November 21, 1914, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product should be destroyed by the United States marshal.
