On November 1, 1915, the mandate of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the First Circuit, directing the execution of the judgment of conviction in the lower court in a case involving the shipment in interstate commerce of misbranded macaroons, in which F. B. Washburn & Co., Boston, Mass., was defendant, was filed in the District Court of the United States for the District of Massachusetts. The mandate also directed the reversal of the judgment of conviction by the lower court upon the charge of adulteration of said macaroons.

On November 8, 1915, the said United States District Court imposed a fine of $50 on the defendant corporation upon the charge of misbranding, and, on November 17, 1915, the count of the information alleging adulteration of the macaroons was nolle prossed.
