13935. Misbranding of strawberries. U. S. v. George Harpole. Plea of guilty. Fine, $10. (F. & D. No. 16947. I. S. No. 4571-t.)

On February 20, 1923, the United States attorney for the Eastern District of Louisiana, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district an information against George Harpole, Independence, La., alleging shipment by said defendant, in violation of the food and drugs act as amended, on or about April 28, 1922, from the State of Louisiana into the State of Missouri, of a quantity of strawberries in unlabeled crates which were misbranded.

Misbranding of the article was alleged in the information for the reason that it was food in package form and the quantity of the contents was not plainly and conspicuously marked on the outside of the package.

On October 17, 1925, the defendant entered a plea of guilty to the information, and the court imposed a fine of $10.

13936. Adulteration and misbranding of apples. U. S. v. 156- $\frac{5}{8}$ Bushel Baskets, More or Less, of Apples. Default decree of condemnation, forfeiture, and destruction. (F. & D. No. 20686. I. S. Nos. 6123-x, 6125-x. S. No. E-5604.)

On December 2, 1925, the United States attorney for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the District Court of the United States for said district a libel praying the seizure and condemnation of 156 $\frac{5}{8}$ bushel baskets, more or less, (160 baskets, $\frac{5}{8}$ bushel each and 60 hampers, 1 bushel each) of apples, remaining in the original unbroken packages at Philadelphia, Pa., alleging that the article had been shipped from Glassboro, N. J., consigned November 30, 1925, and transported from the State of New Jersey into the State of Pennsylvania, and charging adulteration and misbranding in violation of the food and drugs act as amended.

Adulteration of the article was alleged in the libel for the reason that it contained an added poisonous ingredient, arsenic, which rendered it injurious to health.

Misbranding was alleged for the reason that the article was food in package form and the quantity of the contents was not plainly and conspicuously marked on the outside of the package.

On December 21, 1925, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be destroyed by the United States marshal.
