

Examination of the article by this department showed that it consisted in whole or in part of frost damaged fruit.

It was alleged in the libel that the article was adulterated, in that it consisted of a decomposed vegetable substance.

On March 8, 1927, the American Fruit Growers, Inc., having appeared as claimant for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be released to the said claimant upon payment of the costs of the proceedings and the execution of a bond in the sum of $1,000, conditioned in part that it be salvaged, under the supervision of this department, by removing all decomposed oranges.
