

the District Court of the United States for said district a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 3 boxes containing 25 gallons of scallops, remaining in the original unbroken packages at Brooklyn, N. Y., alleging that the article had been shipped by the Wallace M. Quinn Co., Morehead City, N. C., on or about January 11, 1928, and transported from the State of North Carolina into the State of New York, and charging adulteration in violation of the food and drugs act.

It was alleged in the libel that the article was adulterated in that a substance, water, had been mixed and packed with and substituted in part for scallops.

On March 9, 1928, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be destroyed by the United States marshal.
