

the Secretary of Agriculture reported the matter to the United States attorney for the Eastern District of Illinois.

On September 2, 1927, the said United States attorney filed in the District Court of the United States aforesaid a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 50 cartons of Ole Port at Cairo, Ill., alleging that the article had been shipped by the Nesbitt Fruit Products Co., from Los Angeles, Calif., on or about July 11, 1927, and had been transported from the State of California into the State of Illinois, and charging adulteration and misbranding in violation of the food and drugs act. The article was labeled in part: (Shipping carton) "Old Port Grape;" (retail package) "Nesbitt's * * * Ole Port * * * contains added fruit acids, certified color and 1/2 of 1% benzoate of soda * * * Nesbitt Fruit Products, Inc., Los Angeles, Calif.;" (display strip inclosed in shipping carton) "Drink Nesbitt's Ole Port. A Concord Grape flavor. * * * Try a grape flip plain or malted."

It was alleged in the libel that the article was adulterated in that an artificially flavored and colored imitation grape sirup had been substituted in part for the said article, and in that it had been mixed and colored in a manner whereby inferiority was concealed.

Misbranding was alleged for the reason that the labels, above described, bore statements which were false and misleading and deceived and misled the purchaser. Misbranding was alleged for the further reason that the article was an imitation of and was offered for sale under the distinctive name of another article.

On June 24, 1930, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be destroyed by the United States marshal.
