18807. Adulteration of canned salmon. U. S. v. 29 Cases of Canned Salmon. Default decree of condemnation, forfeiture, and destruction. (F. & D. No. 25825. I. S. No. 15728. S. No. 4061.)

Samples of salmon from the shipment herein described having been found to be decomposed, the Secretary of Agriculture reported the matter to the United States attorney for the District of Massachusetts.

On January 28, 1931, the United States attorney filed in the District Court of the United States for the district aforesaid a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 29 cases of canned salmon, remaining in the original unbroken packages at Fall River, Mass., alleging that the article had been shipped by the F. A. Gosse Co., from Seattle, Wash., on or about August 29, 1930, and had been transported from the State of Washington into the State of Massachusetts, and charging adulteration in violation of the food and drugs act. The article was labeled in part: (Cases) "D. I. P. Co. Pink-81;" (cans) "Plymouth Brand Pink Salmon * * * Packed for National Wholesale Grocery Co. Inc., Fall River and New Bedford, Mass."

It was alleged in the libel that the article was adulterated in that it consisted in part of a decomposed animal substance.

On August 17, 1931, no claimant having appeared for the property, judgment of condemnation and forfeiture was entered, and it was ordered by the court that the product be destroyed by the United States marshal.
