Samples of salmon from the shipment herein described having been found to be stale or tainted, indicating decomposition, the Secretary of Agriculture reported the matter to the United States attorney for the Southern District of Alabama.

On December 18, 1931, the United States attorney filed in the District Court of the United States for the district aforesaid a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 1,000 cases of canned salmon, remaining unsold at Mobile, Ala., alleging that the article had been shipped by the Altoona Packing Co., of Altoona, Wash., from Astoria, Oreg., on or about October 21, 1931, and had been transported from the State of Oregon into the State of Alabama, and charging adulteration in violation of the food and drugs act. The article was labeled in part: (Can) "Boat Brand Salmon * * * Packed by Altoona Packing Co., Altoona, Wash."

It was alleged in the libel that the article was adulterated in that it consisted wholly or in part of a decomposed animal substance.

On February 23, 1932, the Altoona Packing Co., Altoona, Wash., claimant, having admitted the allegations of the libel, judgment of condemnation and confiscation was entered. It was ordered by the court that in lieu of destroying the product it be delivered to the said claimant upon payment of costs and the execution of a bond in the sum of $2,000, conditioned in part that it should not be used, sold, or disposed of without having been inspected and approved by this department.
