

23395. Adulteration of cauliflower. U. S. v. 23 Crates, et al., of Cauliflower. Default decrees of condemnation and destruction. (F. & D. nos. 34307, 34308, 34310, 34311. Sample nos. 17900-B, 17902-B, 17904-B, 17905-B.)

An examination of the cauliflower involved in these cases showed the presence of arsenic, or arsenic and lead, in amounts that might have rendered it injurious to health.

On October 16 and 17, 1934, the United States attorney for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, acting upon reports by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court libels praying seizure and condemnation of 97 crates of cauliflower at Philadelphia, Pa., alleging that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce on or about October 15 and 16, 1934, by Henry Mara, from Trenton, N. J., and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act.

The article was alleged to be adulterated in that it contained added poisonous and deleterious ingredients, arsenic in three of the lots, and arsenic and lead in the remaining lot, in amounts which might have rendered it harmful to health.

On November 5, 1934, no claimant having appeared, judgments of condemnation were entered and it was ordered that the product be destroyed.

M. L. WILSON, Acting Secretary of Agriculture.
