23983. Adulteration of apples. U. S. v. 44 Bushel Baskets of Apples. Consent decree of condemnation and destruction. (F. & D. no. 34795. Sample no. 23540-B.)

Examination of the apples involved in this case showed the presence of arsenic and lead in amounts that might have rendered them injurious to health.

On November 8, 1934, the United States attorney for the Northern District of Iowa, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 44 bushel baskets of apples at Fort Dodge, Iowa, alleging that the article had been transported in interstate commerce on or about September 26, 1934, by A. B. Friedman & Co., from East Hardin, Ill., and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act. The article was labeled in part: "Jonathan Grown and Packed by Paul Ringhausen."

The article was alleged to be adulterated in that it contained added poisonous and deleterious ingredients, arsenic and lead, which might have rendered it harmful to health.

On November 30, 1934, the Fort Dodge Grocery Co., claimant, having admitted the allegations of the libel and having consented to the entry of a decree, judgment of condemnation was entered and it was ordered that the product be destroyed.
