

Food and Drugs Act, as amended. The article was labeled in part: "Stadium Brand Bartlet Pears in Syrup Packed for Standard Grocery Company Tacoma, Wash."

It was alleged to be misbranded in that it was canned food and fell below the standard of quality and condition promulgated by the Secretary of Agriculture, since the pears were not normal sized, were not uniform sized, and were not in unbroken halves; and its package or label did not bear a plain and conspicuous statement prescribed by regulations of this Department indicating that it fell below such standard.

On January 18, 1937, the Standard Grocery Co., Tacoma, Wash., claimant, having consented to the entry of a decree, judgment of condemnation was entered and it was ordered that the product be released under bond, conditioned that it be properly relabeled.

W. R. GREGG, Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

26916. Misbranding of canned salmon. U. S. v. 1,350 Cases of Canned Salmon. Consent decree of condemnation. Product released under bond to be relabeled. (F. & D. no. 38898. Sample nos. 23602-C, 32408-C.)

This salmon was represented to be Select quality but in fact consisted of salmon of inferior quality.

On December 31, 1936, the United States attorney for the Western District of Washington, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 1,350 cases of canned salmon at Seattle, Wash., alleging that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce on or about September 13, 1936, from Tyee, Alaska, by the Sebastian-Stuart Fish Co., and charging misbranding in violation of the Food and Drugs Act. The article was labeled in part: "Dawn Brand Select Salmon * * * Select Pink Salmon Packed By Sebastian Stuart Fish Co. Main Office Seattle."

The article was alleged to be misbranded in that the statements, "Select Salmon" and "Select Pink Salmon", borne on the label were false and misleading and tended to mislead and deceive the purchaser when applied to salmon of an inferior quality.

On January 28, 1937, the Sebastian-Stuart Fish Co. having appeared as claimant and having consented to the entry of a decree, judgment of condemnation was entered and it was ordered that the product be released under bond conditioned that it be relabeled under the supervision of this Department.

26917. Adulteration of apples. U. S. v. 312 Boxes of Apples. Consent decree of condemnation. Product released under bond. (F. & D. no. 38939. Sample no. 10381-C.)

This product was contaminated with arsenic and lead.

On December 19, 1936, the United States attorney for the Southern District of California, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation 312 boxes of apples at Los Angeles, Calif., alleging that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce on or about November 25, 1936, by Mrs. A. F. Guinan from Yakima, Wash., and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act. It was labeled in part: "Triton Apples The Triton Company Seattle."

The article was alleged to be adulterated in that it contained added poisonous or deleterious ingredients which might have rendered it injurious to health, namely, arsenic and lead.

On December 24, 1936, Ben Harvey, claimant, having consented to the entry of a decree and having admitted the allegations of the libel, judgment of condemnation was entered and it was ordered that the product be released under bond, conditioned that it should not be disposed of in violation of the law.

26918. Adulteration of apples. U. S. v. 815 Boxes of Apples. Product ordered released under bond. (F. & D. no. 38940. Sample no. 10382-C.)

These apples were contaminated with arsenic and lead.

On December 21, 1936, the United States attorney for the Southern District of California, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation of 815 boxes of apples at Los Angeles, Calif., alleging that the article had been shipped in
