29399. Adulteration and misbranding of ground black pepper. U. S. v. Schloss & Kahn Grocery Co. Plea of guilty. Fine, $10. (F. & D. No. 42552. Sample No. 688-D.)

This product contained excessive shell.

On August 22, 1938, the United States attorney for the Middle District of Alabama, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court an information against Schloss & Kahn Grocery Co., a corporation, Montgomery, Ala., alleging shipment by said company on or about January 26 and March 3, 1938, from the State of Alabama into the State of Georgia of a quantity of ground black pepper which was adulterated and misbranded in violation of the Food and Drugs Act. The article was labeled in part: "Pepper Schloss & Kahn Gro Co Montgomery Ala."

Adulteration was alleged in that ground pepper shells had been mixed and packed with the article so as to reduce, lower, and injuriously affect its quality and strength and had been substituted wholly or in part therefor; and in that ground pepper shells had been mixed with the article in a manner whereby its inferiority was concealed.

It was alleged to be misbranded in that it had been offered for sale under the distinctive name of another article; and in that the statement "Pepper" was false and misleading and was borne on the label so as to deceive and mislead the purchaser since it represented that the article consisted of ground black pepper, whereas it consisted in part of ground pepper shells.

On September 7, 1938, a plea of guilty was entered on behalf of the defendant and the court imposed a fine of $10.

29400. Adulteration of blueberries. U. S. v. 6 Crates of Blueberries. Default decree of condemnation and destruction. (F. & D. No. 43433. Sample No. 26532-D.)

This product was infested with maggots.

On August 16, 1938, the United States attorney for the Southern District of New York, acting upon a report by the Secretary of Agriculture, filed in the district court a libel praying seizure and condemnation of six crates of blueberries at New York, N. Y., alleging that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce on or about August 14, 1938, by Spring Mountain Blueberry Association, Dominic Miraldo, from Tresckow, Pa., and charging adulteration in violation of the Food and Drugs Act.

The article was alleged to be adulterated in that it consisted in whole or in part of a filthy, decomposed, or putrid vegetable substance.

On September 9, 1938, no claimant having appeared, judgment of condemnation was entered and the product was ordered destroyed.
