COFFEE

1901. Adulteration of coffee. U. S. v. 5 Sacks of Coffee. Default decree of condemnation and destruction. (F. D. C. No. 4769. Sample Nos. 22167-E, 22168-E.)

Examination of this product showed the presence of moldy and worm-infested berries.

On May 14, 1941, the United States attorney for the Northern District of California filed a libel against 5 sacks of coffee at San Francisco, Calif., alleging that the article had been shipped in interstate commerce on or about April 18, 1941, by the Moore McCormack Lines, Inc., from Seattle, Wash.; and charging that it was adulterated in that it consisted in whole or in part of a decomposed substance.

On May 27, 1941, no claimant having appeared, judgment of condemnation was entered and the product was ordered destroyed.
