

PRODUCT: 249 cases, each containing 24 boxes, of candy at Brooklyn, N. Y. Examination showed that the product consisted of taffies of a variety of flavors and colors; that it was short-weight; and that the candy occupied only about 80 percent of the volume of its container.

LABEL, IN PART: "Newman's 'Chocolate Fantasies' 12 Ozs. Net Wt."

VIOLATIONS CHARGED: Misbranding, Section 403 (a), the label statement "Chocolate Fantasies" was false and misleading as applied to taffies of a variety of flavors and colors and which were not chocolates or chocolate-covered confections; Section 403 (d), the container was so filled as to be misleading since the package appeared to hold more candy than was actually present; and, Section 403 (e) (2), it failed to bear a label containing an accurate statement of the quantity of the contents.

DISPOSITION: July 6, 1945. Nat Newman, Inc., claimant, having admitted the allegations of the libel, judgment of condemnation was entered and the product was ordered released under bond to be relabeled and otherwise brought into compliance with the law, under the supervision of the Food and Drug Administration.
