

17150. Adulteration and misbranding of oil of lemon and oil of orange. U. S. v. 4 Cans, etc. (and 1 other seizure action). (F. D. C. Nos. 30334, 30472. Sample Nos. 65554-K, 92203-K, 92204-K.)

LIBELS FILED: December 12, 1950, and January 10, 1951, District of New Jersey and Northern District of Illinois.

ALLEGED SHIPMENT: On or about August 31 and September 28, 1950, by Berje Chemical Products, Inc., from New York, N. Y.

PRODUCT: 4 25-pound cans of oil of lemon and 8 25-pound cans of oil of orange at Paterson, N. J., and 2 25-pound cans of oil of lemon at Chicago, Ill.

LABEL, IN PART: "Oil of Lemon, Calif. U. S. P. C. P." and "Oil of Orange, Calif. U. S. P."

NATURE OF CHARGE: Adulteration, Section 402 (b) (2), substances other than genuine oil of lemon and genuine oil of orange had been substituted for oil of lemon U. S. P. and oil of orange U. S. P., respectively.

Misbranding, Section 403 (a), the label designations "Oil of Lemon, Calif. U. S. P. C. P." and "Oil of Orange, Calif. U. S. P." were false and misleading as applied to the products, which were not genuine oil of lemon and genuine oil of orange, respectively.

DISPOSITION: March 26 and April 4, 1951. Berje Chemical Products, Inc., having appeared as claimant for the New Jersey lots, but later having disclaimed any further interest in such lots, and no claimant having appeared for the Illinois lot, judgments of condemnation were entered. The court ordered that the Illinois lot be destroyed; that samples from the New Jersey lots be delivered to the Food and Drug Administration; and that the remainder of the New Jersey lots be destroyed.
