The earliest known register of the Regular Army of the United States is in a Cong. Doc., 7C: 2S, Senate, being the President's message of February 16, 1802, etc. It transmits a roll of persons having office or employment under the United States, and enumerates the military establishment, which includes "the officers of the Army, the agents of the Quartermaster's Department, the superintendents and other officers of the armories, the superintendent and storekeepers of the military stores, the superintendents and other agents of the Indian Department, and the agents for fortification." The register is printed under the title "Military Establishment," and has a separate pagination.

The Library copy of the August, 1813, Register was originally an appendix to Melish's Military and Topographical Atlas of the United States. The Library Register of December 27, 1813, is a reprint from an unknown source. The register of May 17, 1815, is an original proof of 12 pages which has been inserted and given a new pagination (33 to 44) in "Organization of the Military Establishment of the United States, in conformity to the provisions of an act of Congress, passed the 3d day of March, 1815." Published by authority of the War Department, Washington, Gales and Seaton, 1815. That of 1825 is had by the Library only in reprint, "American State Papers." Of the register for January, 1863, only 100 copies were printed, and there were none for general distribution, the regular register for the year being that published in April.

The following registers are printed in the "American State Papers," section "Military Affairs, v. 1-7: 1813, 1816, 1818, 1821, 1823-1838. Army registers have also been reprinted as House Ex. Docs., as follows: 14C: 1S, no. 33, January 1, 1816; 30C: 2S, v. 3, no. 56, register of February, 1848; 31C: 1S, v. 8, no. 54, July, 1849; 32C: 2S, v. 6, nos. 48, 50, and 58, July, 1850, January, 1851, and December, 1852, respectively; 33C: 1S, v. 8, no. 59, July 1853; 33C: 2S, v. 5, no. 58, July, 1854; 34C: 1S, v. 7, no. 22, July, 1855; 34C: 3S, v. 3, no. 24, July, 1856; 35C: 1S, v. 9, no. 66, July, 1857; 35C: 2S, v. 7, no. 58, January, 1859; 36C: 1S, v. 6, no. 35, July, 1859; 36C: 2S, v. 9, no. 54, July, 1860. The "Biennial Registers" of the United States (or "Blue Books"), 1817-93, also contain a list of the army officers in each issue.

The first regulations for the Army were prepared by Baron Steuben, and adopted by the Continental Congress March 29, 1879, and published in Philadelphia the same year. Record and Pension Office.

Official records of the Union and Confederate armies, 1861-65.

They consist of four series, an atlas, and a general index, namely:

Series I. Embraces the formal reports, both Union and Confederate, of the first seizures of United States property in the Southern States, and of all military operations in the field, with the correspondence, orders, and returns relating specially thereto, accompanied by an atlas. It consists of Volumes I to LIII, comprising 111 books and the atlas.

Series II. Contains the correspondence, orders, reports, and returns, Union and Confederate, relating to prisoners of war and (so far as the military authorities were concerned) to State and political prisoners. It consists of eight books, designated as Volumes I to VIII (or serial nos. 114 to 121).

Series III. Contains the correspondence, orders, reports, and returns of the Union authorities (embracing their correspondence with the Confederate officials) not relating specially to the subjects of the first and second series. It sets forth the annual and special reports of the Secretary of War, of the General in Chief, and of the chiefs of the several staff corps and departments; the call for troops, and the correspondence between the national and several State authorities. This series consists of five books, numbered as Volumes I to V (or serial nos. 122 to 126).

Series IV. Exhibits the correspondence, orders, reports, and returns of the Confederate authorities with regard to the same subjects as those embraced in the third series. It consists of three books, designated as Volumes I to III (or serial nos. 127 to 129).

The atlas contains 178 plates, consisting of several hundred maps of battlefields of the war, routes of march of the armies, plans of forts, etc., and a number of photographic views of prominent scenes, places, and objects.

A general index to the entire work, together with an appendix containing additions and corrections of errors discovered in the several volumes after publication, consists of one book, bearing only the serial number 130.

With the exception of Volumes LIV and LV (serial nos. 112 and 113, reserved for future material), all the records have been published, and comprise 128 books, exclusive of the atlas.
