PREFACE.

In compiling this List we have not limited it to the strictly homœopathic remedies, those of which provings have been made or cases of poisoning recorded, but have included all, of which any mention has been made in homœopathic literature. So many remedies are known under different names, that we have endeavored to increase the value of the list by publishing all the authorized synonyms we could collate, and have furthermore added the common names and officinal preparation. Some of the synonyms and common names doubtless need revision and correction, but as this publication is not intended as a pharmacopœia, we have not undertaken it.

A brief general description of HOMŒOPATHIC MEDICINE is not out of place.

They are furnished in three forms: LIQUIDS, POWDERS, and GLOBULES.

1. LIQUIDS may be : First—TINCTURES, by which term is understood the crudest preparation in liquid form. They are made from succulent fresh plants by adding alcohol to the expressed juice ; other plants and roots of resinous nature or having but little juice are reduced to a paste or torn to shreds and macerated in alcohol (of varying strength), and thirdly dry substances are reduced to a powder and digested in or percolated with alcohol. They are also made from animal substances (seldom from mineral). They are generally colored, and are marked "tinct." or with the sign θ, or the fractions $\frac{1}{2}$, $\frac{1}{3}$, $\frac{1}{20}$, etc., on the label. Second. DILUTIONS—By this term is understood a liquid containing less crude material than the tincture. They are furnished in different strengths, marked by figures 1, 3, 6, 30, etc., or by fractions, as $\frac{1}{10}$ $\frac{1}{100}$ $\frac{1}{1000}$ etc. They are made from tinctures, and the triturations of such mineral substances as are insoluble in their crude form. In the latter case they are not furnished lower than the 6th. Dilutions are generally colorless.

2. POWDERS or TRITURATIONS are prepared in different strengths, designated according to the method of Hahnemann, by what is known as the centesimal scale, 1-100. They are made by triturating one part of the crude material with nine parts of milk-sugar, which makes the one-tenth ($\frac{1}{10}$), again triturating the same proportions of this ($\frac{1}{10}$) and milk-sugar makes the one-hundredth ($\frac{1}{100}$) or 1st (Hahnemann's) trituration. In the same manner all are made.

The relation of the centesimal to the decimal scale, is shown by the following table, where the centesimal is marked "C" and the decimal "X":

1 part crude mat.	with	9 parts	milk-sugar	$=\frac{1}{10}=$	1x.
1 do	$\frac{1}{10}$ "	9	do	$=\frac{1}{100}=$	2x=1c.
1 do	$\frac{1}{100}$ "	9	do	$=\frac{1}{1000}=$	3x=1½c.
1 do	$\frac{1}{1000}$ "	9	do	$=\frac{1}{10000}=$	4x=2c.
1 do	$\frac{1}{10000}$ "	9	do	$=\frac{1}{100000}=$	5x=2½c.
1 do	$\frac{1}{100000}$ "	9	do	$=\frac{1}{1000000}=$	6x=3c.

Unless otherwise specified, the centesimal scale is generally understood.

3. GLOBULES or PELLETS, made of cane sugar, are medicated with the dilutions of the desired potence as denoted by the figures, 3, 6, 30, 200, etc.

Medicines of vegetable, and some animal, substances can be had in form of tinctures, triturations and globules. Mineral substances can be had in trituration from $\frac{1}{10}$ up, and in dilution and globules, generally not lower than the 6th.

Attention is especially called to the additions on page 145, and corrections facing page 154.

SMITH'S HOMŒOPATHIC PHARMACY.

Established by John T. S. Smith 1844. Incorporated 1872.

In the preparation of our remedies we endeavor to follow the method adopted by the original provers, adhering where possible, to the published formulæ of Hahnemann and his associates, and only deviating from his plain general directions to conform to the special modes of some of the recent provings.

All our medicines, as far as possible, are prepared on our premises. The Milk-Sugar, used in the triturations, is the purest imported. It is again refined by us, re-crystallized and ground in our own mills, used exclusively for that purpose.

Our Tinctures are in all cases made with alcohol which has been re-distilled in glass, to rid it of fusel oil and other impurities. We employ only able botanists in the selection, identification and gathering of the fresh plants, and guarantee them as represented. The tinctures which are necessarily prepared abroad (from fresh plants) are imported from reliable homœopathic pharmaceutists.

Our Globules are made with special reference to their use in homœopathic practice and not as ordinary candies of confectioners. They are manufactured of refined cane sugar, without the addition of any other substance. For absorbing properties, regularity in size and color, they are unsurpassed. We have adopted the plan of putting them up in glass, whereby they retain their moisture longer, and consequently absorb more readily, than when otherwise packed.

With greatly increased facilities, whereby the cost of manufacture is lessened, we are able, while maintaining the standard of our preparations, to quote considerable reduction in our prices.

In our packing we have adopted a plain round bottle, of full capacity, enabling us to guarantee full weight and measurement.

Our triturations are weighed out and packed in wide mouthed bottles, with our improved wood-topped corks, their extra size obviating the necessity of the former tight packing which rendered dispensing difficult.

We have also enlarged our case department, an important feature of which is making special cases to order, for which we shall be glad to furnish estimates, plans, etc.

ALKETHREPTA

Is a pure preparation of CHOCOLATE, made in the form of powder from a very fine and carefully selected COCOA-BEAN, every care being taken to render the product equal to the best, WITHOUT the admixture of spices and flavoring extracts, which are excluded as being more or less of a medicinal character.

The natural, and highly nutritious, butter, or oil, of the Cocoa-Bean is retained, but so neutralized as not to derange the most delicate stomach, thus insuring the preservation of the fine flavor and delicate aroma of the finer kinds of Cocoa. It is packed in tin boxes containing one pound.
