OF THE

CUMBERLAND COUNTY

MEDICAL SOCIETY,

ORGANIZED 1867.

PORTLAND, ME.:
STEPHEN BERRY, PRINTER.

1876.

CONSTITUTION.

SECTION 1. The name of this Society shall be "THE CUMBERLAND COUNTY MEDICAL SOCIETY," and its object shall be the improvement of its members in the knowledge and treatment of disease and accident.

SEC. 2. The officers of the Society shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and a Business Committee of five, the Chairman of which shall be the Secretary.

SEC. 3. The officers of this Society may be elected by hand vote at each annual meeting, which shall be holden in November, at such place and on such day of the month as the Business Committee may report.

SEC. 4. Any person proposed by two members and recommended by the Business Committee, having received a two-thirds vote in his favor at any regular meeting of the Society, may become a member by paying the admission fee and signing the Constitution and By-Laws.

SEC. 5. Charges against any member must be made in writing and passed to the Business Committee, and if deemed of sufficient importance by them, a special meeting shall be called to act thereon. By a majority vote of such meeting a member may be censured, impeached or expelled.

SEC. 6. Any member not having charges or dues standing against him, may obtain an honorable discharge at any regular meeting by making application therefor through the Secretary.

SEC. 7. No political or religious question, or point of medical ethics, or alteration or amendment of Constitution and By-Laws, shall be brought up for discussion at any regular meeting of this Society.

SEC. 8. Ten members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any regular meeting, but it shall require the action of twenty-five members to make the business of a special meeting constitutional.

SEC. 9. This Constitution may be altered or amended by a two-thirds vote at any special meeting called for that purpose, in the notice for which the proposed change shall be mentioned.

ARTICLE I. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Society, and confine the members in their remarks to the subject under discussion.

ART. II. The Vice President shall perform the duties of the President in his absence, and in the absence of both President and Vice President, a President pro tem. must be chosen to perform the duties of that office.

ART. III. The Secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings of the Society, shall arrange them for publication, shall notify officers and members of their elections and appointments, shall give at least three days' notice of all meetings of the Society, by circular to each member, and shall present all applications for membership or honorable discharge.

ART. IV. The Treasurer shall collect all dues and assessments, receive admission fees and donations, pay all bills properly approved, and report at each annual meeting the financial condition of the Society.

ART. V. The Business Committee shall attend to the publication of the transactions of the Society, act upon all charges preferred against members, order special meetings to be called when they deem it necessary, report the time and place of regular meetings, appoint, at each regular meeting, at least three members to write essays upon medical or surgical subjects, to be read at the next regular meeting, appoint delegates to other medical bodies, pass to the President, at or before the beginning of each meeting, an order of business, and see that no unnecessary interruption break in upon that order. They shall also make inquiry into the character and standing of all applicants for membership, requiring, in all cases, positive evidence of a diploma from some regular medical college, before a vote for such applicant can be taken.

ART. VI. The admission fee to this society shall be three dollars, and the annual tax two dollars. By a unanimous vote at a regular meeting, a member may be exempt from taxation, after which he shall be considered an honorary member.

ART. VII. The members of the Society are invited to preserve and forward to the Curator of the Maine Medical Association all interesting pathological specimens obtained by them, with a brief history of the same.

ART. VIII. A written essay or report should not require more than thirty minutes in its reading, and no member shall speak more than twenty minutes upon the same subject, without permission from the President and Business Committee.

ART. IX. Officers of this Society shall assume the duties of their offices at the close of the meeting at which they are elected.

ART. X. All written reports and essays passed to the Business Committee or read before the Society, shall be the property of the Society.
