OF THE

WORCESTER DISTRICT
MEDICAL SOCIETY.

1897.

WORCESTER:
PRESS OF GILBERT G. DAVIS.
1897.

MAR 19 1958

THE Worcester District Medical Society was organized September 26, 1804, as a Subordinate Society under the Massachusetts Medical Society, in accordance with an act of the Legislature of March 8, 1803, with power to elect its own officers, to establish its own regulations, (so that they be not repugnant to the by-laws of the general Society,) and to hold property and dispose of the same. The elements of this District organization had been in existence under another form since the year 1794.

BY-LAWS
OF THE
Worcester District Medical Society.

ARTICLE I.

FELLOWSHIP.

THE Society shall be called the WORCESTER DISTRICT MEDICAL SOCIETY, and shall consist of all the Fellows of the Massachusetts Medical Society residing in the City of Worcester, and in the towns of Auburn, Barre, Berlin, Blackstone, Bolton, Boylston, West Boylston, Brookfield, North Brookfield, West Brookfield, Charlton, Clinton, Dana, Douglas, Dudley, Grafton, Hardwick, Harvard, Holden, Hubbardston, Lancaster, Leicester, Milford, Mendon, Millbury, New Braintree, Northboro, Northbridge, Oakham, Oxford, Paxton, Princeton, Rutland, Shrewsbury, Southboro, Southbridge, Spencer, Sterling, Sturbridge, Sutton, Upton, Uxbridge, Warren, Webster, Westboro, and none other.

ARTICLE II.

MEETINGS.

The annual meeting of the Society shall be held at ten o'clock, A. M., on a Wednesday, between the fifteenth of April and the fifteenth of May, and if not otherwise ordered, it shall be on the Second Wednesday in May. If in any year this day should be less than ten days before the annual meeting of the State Society, this Society shall fix another day by vote; or if it neglect to do so, a day shall be specified by the President.

The Society shall hold meetings on the Second Wednesday of September, November, January, and March annually, at such hours as may from time to time be appointed by vote, for the purpose of hearing reports of cases, or communications on medical or scientific subjects, and discussing the same; and the members may engage in any exercises or discussions, which may be deemed conducive to their mutual improvement.

Other meetings may be held by special vote. The Secretary shall call a special meeting on the written application of five members.

The annual and the November meeting shall be stated meetings.

All meetings shall be held at Worcester, unless otherwise ordered by vote at the previous stated meeting.

ARTICLE III.

QUORUM.

Five members shall constitute a quorum, but a less number may adjourn the meeting from time to time.

ARTICLE IV.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

At each annual meeting shall be chosen by ballot, in addition to the officers specified in the By-Laws of the Massachusetts Medical Society, a Committee of three on the Funds, an Auditing Committee of three, and a Committee of three on the Library, who shall hold their offices for one year and till others are chosen in their stead.

From the Councillors elected, the society shall specify one to be its representative in the nominating Committee for the officers of the State Society. (M. M. S. Councillors' Proceedings, Feb. 4, 1874.)

At least three of the five Censors and two of the committee on Funds shall, whenever practicable, be re-elected from the old board. (M. M. S. Councillors' Proceedings, Oct. 4, 1874.)

ARTICLE V.

ORATOR.

At every annual meeting, there shall be one member appointed by ballot, to deliver an address or dissertation on some medical subject, at the next annual meeting; the appointment may be made at any subsequent meeting if the member first appointed shall decline the service.

ARTICLE VI.

DUTIES OF THE PRESIDENT AND VICE-PRESIDENT.

The President shall call to order and preside at all meetings of the Society, and shall have all the powers usually accorded to a presiding officer. He shall also perform such other duties as may devolve upon him as Vice-President ex-officio, of the State Society.

In the absence of the President his duties shall be discharged by the Vice-President; and in the absence of both these officers, a chairman shall be chosen by the Society.

ARTICLE VII.

DUTIES OF THE SECRETARY.

The Secretary shall have charge and custody of the By-Laws, Records and other papers of the Society; he shall notify and attend the meetings of the Society, and keep a fair record of all its doings, and read at the meetings all such communications as the President may direct to be made; he shall notify the chairman of each Committee appointed by the Society, in each case stating the commission and names of the committee, and he shall perform such other duties as may be assigned him, or as are required by the By-Laws of the Massachusetts Medical Society, or by any vote of said Society or its Councillors.

ARTICLE VIII.

DUTIES OF THE TREASURER.

The Treasurer shall collect all moneys due the society, except such as are otherwise especially provided for, and keep an accurate account of all receipts and disbursements; he shall annually make to the society a written report of his doings and of the state of the treasury, and shall subject all his accounts to the inspection of the Auditing Committee, and shall perform the duties required of him by the By-Laws of the Massachusetts Medical Society, or by any vote of said Society or its Councillors.

ARTICLE IX.

OF THE INVESTED FUNDS.

The general care and management of the permanent funds of the Society, including those now in hand and any that may hereafter be acquired, shall be vested in the Committee on the Funds,—subject, always, to such directions as may be given from time to time by the society.

The duties of the Committee in this regard shall be :—

1. To treat each separate gift or legacy, or other acquisition designed for permanent investment, from whatever source received, as a separate and independent fund, designating it by either the name of the donor, or some other indicative of the use to which it is made applicable.
2. To keep all such funds constantly invested in interest bearing securities, having at all times, in the selection of such securities, particular regard rather to the safety of the principal than to the rate of interest to be obtained.
3. To expend, or cause to be expended at their discretion, the income derived from these investments, for the purposes authorized by the terms under which the several funds are or shall be held, and for no other.
4. To keep in a book provided for the purpose an account current with each fund,—which book and account shall at all times be open to the inspection of any member of the Society who may desire to examine them.
5. To lay before the Society at every annual meeting, in print and in detail, a complete report of the transactions of the year preceding, stating for each fund the income received, the expenditures made, (and for what,) its present condition, and the name, character and amounts of the several securities in which it is held.

ARTICLE X.

DUTIES OF THE LIBRARIAN.

The Librarian shall have the care and custody of all the books and of the museum, instruments and apparatus, of the Society, and shall be responsible for their safe keeping. He shall keep an accurate register of the same, and of all additions from time to time made thereto, whether by purchase or donation, and shall so arrange and keep them as to accommodate any member who may wish to take books from the Library, or to consult them at the Library. He shall keep an accurate account of all books drawn from the Library, noting the time when drawn and when returned, and shall assess and collect all fines for too long detention or injury of books, as prescribed in the By-Laws, and shall pay into the treasury all such assessments collected. He shall from time to time open the Library and business of his department to the inspection of a Committee on the Library. Whenever he receives authentic information that any publication has been sent out to the Fellows of the State Society, he shall at the next meeting of the District Society, give due notice of such distribution. (M. M. S. Councillors' Proceedings, June 13, 1876.)

ARTICLE XI.

DUTIES OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE LIBRARY.

The Committee on the Library shall make a thorough examination of the Library at least once a year, and report its condition to the Society in writing, together with such recommendations as to its management, as may have been suggested by their examination. They shall, from time to time, at their discretion, prepare lists of books or periodicals, the purchase of which may seem to them necessary or desirable, and present them to the chairman of the Committee on the Funds.

ARTICLE XII.

PUBLICATIONS.

The Society may publish any communications or papers that may be deemed beneficial to its members.

ARTICLE XIII.

AMENDMENT OF BY-LAWS.

The Society shall, at its discretion, incorporate into its By-Laws at a stated meeting, by a majority vote and without previous notice, the substance of any vote or resolution passed by the Councillors or the State Society, and affecting the duties, rights or privileges of this Society, or of any of its officers. Otherwise these By-Laws may be amended by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members present at a stated meeting; provided that the amendment is proposed in writing at a previous meeting, and notice of the same sent by the Secretary to each member of the Society.

ARTICLE XIV.

REGULATIONS OF THE LIBRARY.

1. The members of this Society shall be entitled to the use of the Library; and on a personal or written application to the Librarian, each member may have from the Library, three volumes, but no more at any one time.

2. Any member may retain any book from the Library two months, after the expiration of which time, if he neglect to return it, he shall pay a fine of ten cents per week on each volume so retained, and be deprived of further use of the Library until he shall have complied with this By-Law; and if any member shall injure or lose a book in his possession, he shall pay such sum as the Librarian shall estimate the damage to be, or he shall replace it by a new copy of the same.

3. Periodicals not bound shall be subject to the following rules: Each number of a semi-monthly may be retained ten days; and of a quarterly fifteen days—and for a longer detention, the same fines shall be assessed as for detention of other books beyond the time prescribed.

4. The Librarian shall cause every book belonging to the Library to be labelled on the inside of the cover with the following words: "Property of the Worcester District Medical Society," or "Gift of —— to the Worcester District Medical Society," as the case may be.

5. No person shall be allowed to take any books from the Library except in the presence of the Librarian or of some person duly authorized by him.

6. When any member applies for a book which is out, he may leave a written application for it with the Librarian, who shall retain the book after its return to the Library fifteen days for the person so applying.

7. Works of reference and valuable books with plates may be withheld from circulation at the discretion of the Library Committee; and the Purchasing Committee shall insert such a reservation in newly bought books before their deposit in the Library.

ARTICLE XV.

COMMITTEE TO PROCURE PAPERS.

The President, Secretary and Librarian shall constitute a Committee, whose duty it shall be to appoint for each regular meeting some member of the Society to prepare and present a paper upon some topic of medical interest; and the President shall announce at each meeting the member so appointed for the next. It shall be the duty of that member to attend to the office assigned him, or to send to the President an acceptable excuse in writing.

STANDING RULE.

ORDER OF EXERCISES AT THE ANNUAL MEETING.

(1.) The Secretary shall read the proceedings of the last annual and of the last preceding meeting, and shall report the names of those who have become members of the Society during the preceding year.

(2.) The President shall call for reports from the Treasurer, Librarian, Committee on the Library, Committee on Funds, and the Treasurer of the Social Fund.

(3.) The officers shall be chosen for the ensuing year.

(4.) Any propositions or communications which may be thought conducive to the welfare of the Society, or to the interest of the Medical Profession, may be introduced by any member.

(5.) At twelve o'clock the President shall call on the person appointed to deliver the annual discourse, and other business shall be suspended until the discourse shall have been delivered.

(6.) Incidental or unfinished business.

(7.) Induction of newly elected officers.

(8.) Adjournment.
